LOCAL NEWS.

For additional Local News see Third Page

Only 25 Cents.

The price of admission to the concert given by the Vienna Ladies' band has been reduced to 25 cents. The public are invited to attend.

Not There.

The proprietor of the London house called at the Light office this morning and stated that Mr. Joyce and his victim, Miss Cass, did not stay at his headquarters.

Sensible Little Girl.

"Oh, mama! I saw so many pretty things at Mr. Wolfson's today. Mama, Mr. Wolfson sells so cheap. You must go down town with me to-morrow and call on Mr. Wolfson." 21

Studying Geology.

At the Normal school this morning Professor Heilicher lectured on geology and exhibited a variety of geological specimens which were examined with considerable interest.

Guns For a Long Time.

Among the prisoners sent to Huntsville yesterday was Gordon, of Live Oak county, who was sentenced to 30 years' imprisonment for murder, and who has been in the county jail for safe keeping.

The State of the Bridges.

Other reports of a hole in the mill bridge, and Bishop states that a plank is off Commerce street bridge. These reports are of daily occurrence, and tend to show that the bridges need a general overhauling and much repair.

Inmates of the Poor House.

The Superintendent of the poor house reports that during the month of June he had 47 inmates under his charge. Of these 12 are females. Some are sick and under medical treatment, but no deaths occurred during the month.

Who Fired the Shot.

Persons living on Barrera street were disturbed last night by the violent cursing of a German resident there. A pistol shot followed the cursing, but as far as can be ascertained, no one was injured.

Dismissed.

In Justice Adam's court the following cases were heard and dismissed:

M. Eckerhoff vs. Robert Fraser, suit on account for $21.50.

Shook & Littman vs. Phil Sulzacher, suit for forcible detainer.

The New Scale.

The Western Union new telegraph rules for employees have been circulated. They require day operators to work nine hours, and night operators seven hours per day. Twelve times it is to be paid at extra rates. This seems to be regarded as satisfactory by the men and it is said will stay the threatened strike.

The Music Especially Arranged.

Professor Hall, of the Eighth Cavalry band, has arranged the music of Mascotte, and critics who have heard the rehearsals pronounce that the opera on Monday night is going to be a grand success. The tickets are selling quite fast, and if you desire good seats, call early on Ernst Kische and have them reserved.

"Initiation is the sincerest form of flattery"

When successful, but how far it falls short of the mark when it is a failure. A bad initiation is worse than a poor original. Dealers should deal only with a thoroughly reliable house, conducted on unsurprising principles, like Hart, who sells tobacco, alcohol and other goods, San Antonio, is a house of that kind. Never beaten in quality or price.

What Can Be Done?

Marshal Shurtz is in a decided quandary as to what to do in case the gamblers make a break for recouping. There is no effective city law, because the old ordinance was never repealed, and the new one has been declared illegal. The state law however, is effective, and in such a contingency the sheriff would have to act as the law directs or take the responsibility of his own action.

LOCAL PERSONALS.

Items Gleaned in the Hotel Corridors and Various Other Sources.

Prof. H. Warren, of Kirby, is a guest at the Central.
Mrs. Talbot & Son, of Chiswick, have rooms at the Central.
P. J. Crum, merchant of Rio Grande City, is at the Central.
J. H. Spencer, a prominent citizen of Huron, is staying at the Central.
Mr. W. C. King, Pacific Express Messenger between Dallas and San Antonio, called upon the Light to-day.
Mr. A. V. Hernandez, ex-Governor of the State of San Luis Potosi, and family, consisting of six ladies, five children and servants, are stopping at the El Leonardi hotel.

LIGHT SPARKS.

Emerson's auction sales are crowded daily.
The banquet of L. Union Latine has been indefinitely postponed.
Polo, it is said, is very popular by reason of its resemblance to public life.
The Houston has a family, it consists of a pretty female cat and three kit cats.
Leon, the infant child of N. and K. L. Blanchard, the restaurateur, died yesterday.
Dr. Charles de Gannal, well known in this city, died at Centre Point on the 10th instant.
Arthur Dugosh lies seriously ill at 3414 Matagorda street, and his death is hourly expected.
There will be no services in the Temple both 21 to-night, owing to the pastor's indisposition.
Officer Bishop says call him anything you please, except a dupe. To do that is a mortal offense.
The two gold slides lately put up by C. H. Mueller, on Commerce street, are fine specimens of work.
The Loring publishing company are now sending all their usual mail matter by the Pacific Express.
In the Recorder's court this morning six persons were fined 25 cents, seven continued and five dismissed.

Two new oil lamps have been erected at the Convention and Lewis bridges. That's right, the city needs more light.
A marriage license was issued in favor of C. H. Gannon and Sallie Contrail, and Kelpo Pax and Pauline Stines.
Several fair vagrants received the attention of the police last night, and paid their usual tax in the form of a 50 cent fine.

Banders & Eberhardt's entertainment is already an assured success. The grand fireworks display will follow the performance and take place about 10:30.
A list of the Louisiana lottery drawing, of July 3, can be seen at St. Hart's cigar store. Also tickets for the August drawing can be purchased there.
Some infernal scamp fired Mr. Schumacher's pasture and burned 20 acres of grass. But for the timely discovery, the act would have had a more serious termination.
Homes Park, in Justice Adam's court yesterday, sought to recover two horses from Stevenson. His claim was allowed on condition that he pay pasturage and costs.

Only one transfer this morning. Louis John Gauthier and Eliza, his wife, to C. A. Richter, part of lot 15, south range, east side of the San Antonio river, considered.
A patent from the State to Antonio Guerra was filed this morning, by which the latter became owner of land in survey No. 251, on the Rio Grande, 35 miles northwest of Laredo.
Building in Philadelphia is going on so fast this spring that a man who goes to sleep on a lot at night is liable to have a roof over his head in the morning—that is, if the police do their duty.

"What is the next thing to a dude?" was asked in a fashionable parlor, in Harlem, the other day. One lady answered, an ape, another an apron, and when a little girl said, "The next thing to a dude is his shirt," the subject was suddenly dropped.
Henry Fletcher, colored, died this morning at 12:30 o'clock at his late residence on South Centre street. The deceased was a member of the Knights of Wise Men, and United Brothers of Friendship, Lodge No. 5. He was respected by all who knew him, and his family have the sympathy of the community. His remains will be buried this evening at 8:30 o'clock, from the St. Paul M. E. church.

What the People Say.

For square dealing we go to L. Wolfson's. Wolfson has built up a splendid business, because he treats his customers fairly.
Wolfson carries the largest assortment of goods and any house in San Antonio Texas.
That Wolfson is a shrewd buyer, and he gives his customers the benefit of the bargain.
Wolfson sells first-class goods as well as the cheapest and at prices that can't be beat. 22.
A dangerous operation was performed this morning by some of this city's prominent physicians. A Mexican woman living on North Flores street had been suffering for a long time from a tumor in the abdomen, and the only way of relieving her was to cut it out. This was accordingly done, and the woman did as well as could be expected. Her recovery was seen by the Light reporter, and is remarkable for its ease.

Times Look Lively.

A light man yesterday interviewed a number of business men on the subject, "How's trade?" The general reply was, "Business is very dull." "Business is quiet." "Nothing doing." "Can't afford to advertise." When the commissioneer reached the mammoth establishment of L. Wolfson, on Main plaza, he there found all his clerks busy as bees waiting on customers. It always looks lively at Wolfson's, because he keeps up his stock and is satisfied to sell at a reasonable profit. 23-24

Summer Entertainments.

Mezars, Sanders & Eberhardt, managers of the Novelty combination, will open their summer entertainments, at San Pedro springs, with a grand display of fire works, which have been provided for the occasion by Mr. Kerlin, owner of the springs, Saturday evening, July 14, and as a new singer and new scenery has been erected, something never heretofore done, we can but hope, as all the entertainments they have had management of have proved a success in every particular, so all they ask is liberal patronage. 25-26

Deaths.

Alvina Ivars, aged 30 years, a stranger, died of typhoid fever yesterday in the Second ward.
Mary Theresa Mondrez, aged nine months, died of measles in the Third ward yesterday.
Henry Fletcher, member of the colored lodge of the Knights of the Wise Men, aged 38, died this morning of internal hemorrhage, in the Third ward.
Yesterday Leon Blanchard, aged 10 months, died of cholera infantum, in the Fourth ward.
The death of Jenny Snodcock, aged 39 days, from thrush, is reported this morning.
W. H. Lill, the 18 months old son of the contractor of that name, was found dead today and buried this morning. The cause of death could not be ascertained.

The railways now constructed and being operated, cover a distance which would reach eight times around the earth.

Fifty-three thousand four hundred and eleven applications for pensions were filed during the fiscal year just ended.

A Broker's Wife Out of Town.

Of all the tedious temptations invidious contrived by the devil for pulling men down, there's none more delusive, seductive, abusive, than the snare of a broker with wife out of town.

He feels such a delightfulness, stay out all night, stay out all night, stay out all night—
I own it with pain!
A bachelor rakishness,
What will you take for me,
Next day's headache-stomach,
None can explain.

His wife may be beautiful,
Tender and faithful,
To not that her absence should cause him de-light:
But the cursed opportunity,
Useful instantly,
Scatters his scruples as day matters right.

He feels whisky-and-water-ful,
Rapture-and-slaughter-ful,
Nothing-he-ought-to-ful,
To his best end!
So bachelor-rakish-some,
Quite corpse-de-bailed-some,
Make-stories-tally-some,
With wicked friends.—Stockholder.

The Blonde and Brunette.

A beautiful brunette of the First ward, and a blonde of the Fourth ward, met on Commerce street Thursday morning, and the following dialogue ensued:
Brunette: "Howdy do, F., and where are you going?"
Blonde: "I am going down to Mr. Wolfson's to look at those pretty flowers and feathers."
Brunette: "Well, I'll go along with you. I want to buy some of that lovely lace I saw there yesterday." 27-28

Sparkling Gems and Diamonds.
